

JANET WILE LECTURE SERIES

MUSEUM OF JEWISH HERITAGE

On August 11, 2019, the Janet Wile Lecture Series is planning a trip to the Museum of Jewish Heritage (Battery Park, NYC) to view a very special exhibit.

Auschwitz, Not Long Ago. Not Far Away.

Cost: $30 per person. Includes: Admission tickets, (timed entry), a guided tour with Exhibit Educators (1 1/2 hours, very comprehensive) and gratuities. Lunch is not included. You may eat in the Lox Cafe (in the museum), Kosher, Dairy, $8 - $18, or in a local restaurant in the area. We will travel by a Mini-Coach, that accommodates 29 people. Bus will leave the temple parking lot at approximately 8:00 am. Our tour is scheduled for 11:30 am. We will leave the museum for home between 3:30 and 4 pm. Based on the number of people the coach can accommodate, selection will be based on the post-marked envelope when your check and the tear-off are received in the temple office. A 2nd list will be created for guests and temple members should we have cancellations.

To reserve your seat, payment and the tear-off slip should be sent as quickly as possible.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU:

After the tour that will end about 1 pm, you may remain in the exhibit area and revisit any part of the exhibit. If you leave the exhibit area, you can't enter again, but you may visit the museum's permanent exhibit as well as the Garden of Stones, a Memorial to those who died in the Holocaust, have lunch, or visit the surrounding area.
